

Amherst Garden Walk

Saturday and Sunday

July 8 - 9

10am - 4pm

Zone 1

143 HENDRICKS BOULEVARD: After taking a year off we are back and excited to show off what we have been working on. Come and enjoy a mix of new and established gardens and hopefully take away a few ideas to add to your garden! * SAT ONLY.

523 LONGMEADOW ROAD: Cacti, Yucca, and succulents in the front or a little Southwest in the Northeast. Other gardens contain many perennials. Check out our 100+ year old Willow tree. * SAT. ONLY.

642 LONGMEADOW ROAD: More is more in this maximalists' paradise! A riot of colors and art with musical inspiration everywhere you look, always keeping our sights on fun!

699 LONGMEADOW ROAD: Large double lot filled with a colorful mix of annuals, perennials, and clematis vines. Special interest loads of garden art whimsy. A true "She Shed", pond and catalpa trees.

292 HEDSTROM DRIVE: Our gardens have various grasses, bamboo, hostas and loads of flowers for color. Our garden is on the "Oriental" theme.

299 HEDSTROM DRIVE: Looking for pollinators? Check out this garden filled with dozens of perennials plus splashed of color from annuals. Don't forget about our "Garden Railroad" and our awesome vegetable garden. *SAT ONLY

111 CAMPUS DRIVE WEST: Our front garden consists of hostas mixed with annuals of orange and periwinkle. Walk along the side of hostas, foxgloves and day lilies as you get the view of the waterfall and koi pond. Bi-level yard with many gardens and a cozy entertaining space. Pergola, shed and arts and crafts theme.

119 CAMPUS DRIVE WEST: Grandma's Serenity Garden. Main flowers gifted from loved ones and new ones mixed in. Hummingbird welcoming garden with many many perennials. Dining on the patio or lounging in the hot tub looking over Grandma's serenity spot, my happy place! All are Welcome!

121 CHATEAU TERRACE: Welcome to our three-season garden! We feature native plants and flowering perennials in an informal setting. Come and be our guest!

8 BENTHAM PARKWAY: Corner lot with large perennial gardens accented with a few annuals. Features include a small man-made stream and a Little Free Library Garden that includes a home for the librarian! *SAT ONLY

110 WASHINGTON HIGHWAY: Originally a Victory Garden during World War II, the land was transformed into a flower garden in 2011. Hardscape elements include a lattice-top wood fence around the perimeter for climbing vines, a classic brick paver patio under a grapevine-draped pergola, a flagstone stepping stone path, and a potting shed. *SAT ONLY

475 MOUNT VERNON ROAD: A mixed garden of repurposed plants, flowers, trees and small statues. Just moved in a '67 Tag along for possible "she shed". Be sure to stop by and explore our garden!

445 LEBRUN ROAD: After a dreary winter, I couldn't wait to start gardening. Our color themes have always been pink, white, purple in the front and "anything goes" in the backyard. Well, the theme in the backyard for this year is "Awash with Colors!"

Zone 2

66 BRIARHURST ROAD: A very different front yard garden featuring many perennials and annuals. Large focus on many varieties of day lilies and annual bulbs. The garden is very pollinator friendly and if you're lucky you may see a hummingbird or a variety of butterflies! *SAT ONLY

UB BIKE PATH/ ELLICOTT CREEK TRAIL COMMUNITY GARDEN: Circle Garden maintained by the Amherst Garden Club. Various perennials and annuals which bloom from Spring to Fall. Many of the plants attract bees and birds.

AMHERST STATE PARK, 400 Mill STREET: The Amherst Garden Club plants and maintains two gardens. The circle garden to the right as you enter and the garden at the grotto. Stop by and enjoy the wonderful gardens created by the volunteers.

144 OLD ORCHARD: Over 14 gardens wrap around the front, sides and backyard. Flower Maximalism brink wall courtyard. Water fountains and Waterfalls! Corkscrew Willow Moon Garden. Farm style vegetables! A lot to see at this location.

CLEARFIELD LIBRARY GARDEN, 770 HOPKINS ROAD: The Town & Country Garden Club of Williamsville "adopted" the library's garden in 2018. Over the past 5 years, club members have removed old, overgrown shrubs and planted an assortment of small trees, shrubs, perennials and annuals. Stop by and see all the changes to the library garden!

164 CRESTWOOD LANE: This location has it all, many gardens throughout the property. Many areas to take a seat and take in all the color. Over 100 hostas and a pond with a waterfall. Enjoy your views, you'll be happy you stopped!

ZONE 3

22 HUBBARDSTON PLACE: Large front yard garden in a small space bursting with annuals, perennials, native plants and a fairy garden. Butterfly, bird and bee haven. Step up on the porch! Adorned with sustainable materials, drawn from nature.

27 JONATHAN: Backyard oasis created after our Ash trees were removed. Butterfly garden, raised beds, a waterfall feature and a colorful mix of perennials and annuals. Must see garden!

62 JEFFREY DRIVE: Large front garden, gardens around periphery of house, large herb garden, shrub borders, perennials and annual garden along the back

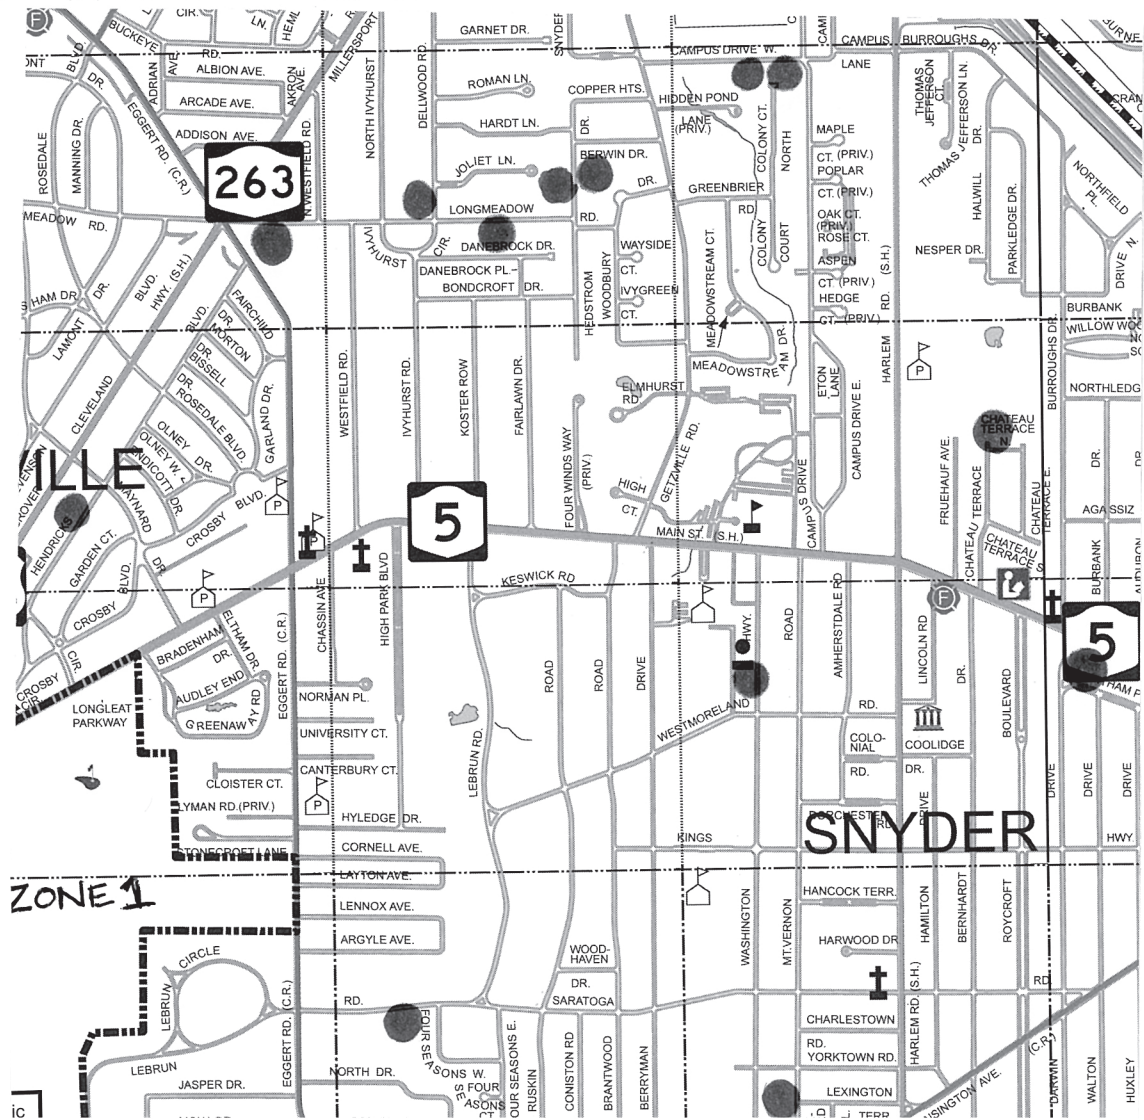

ZONE 4

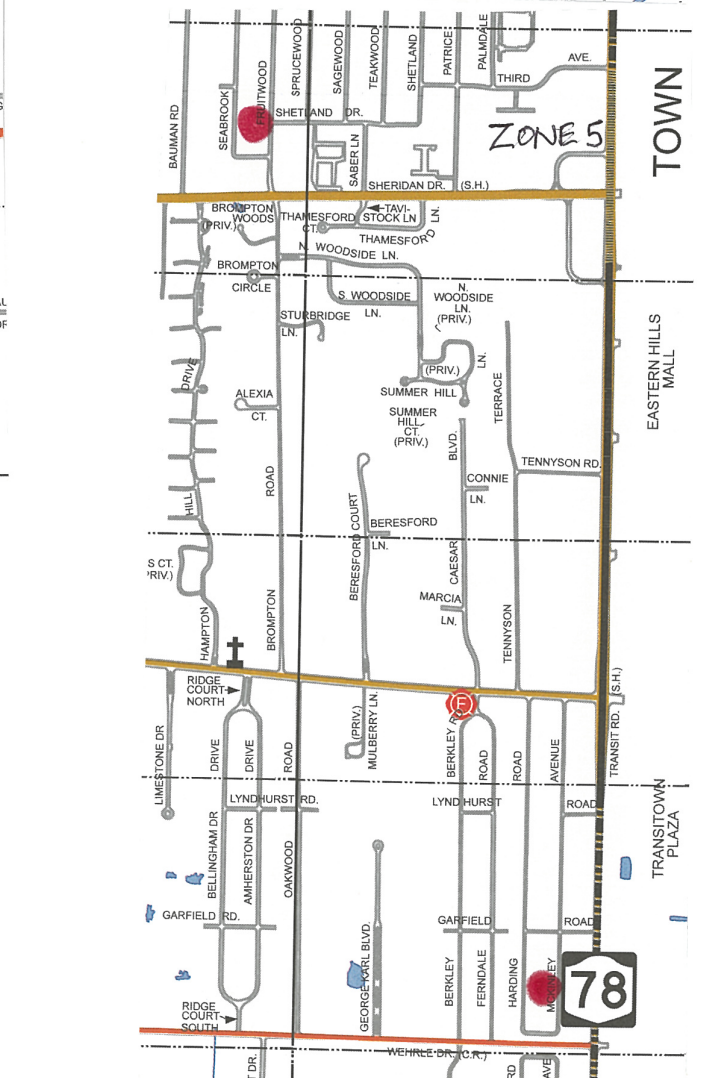

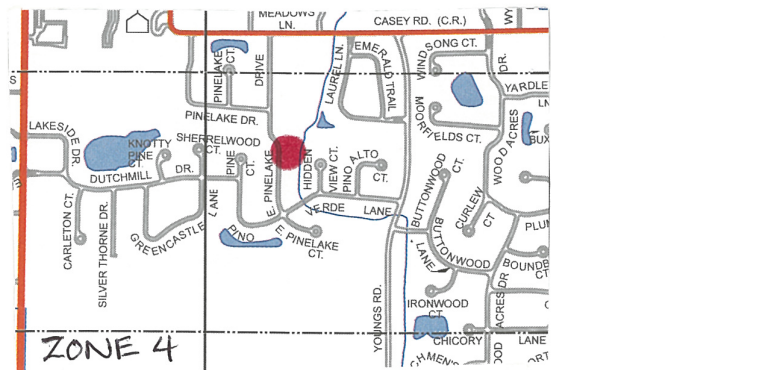

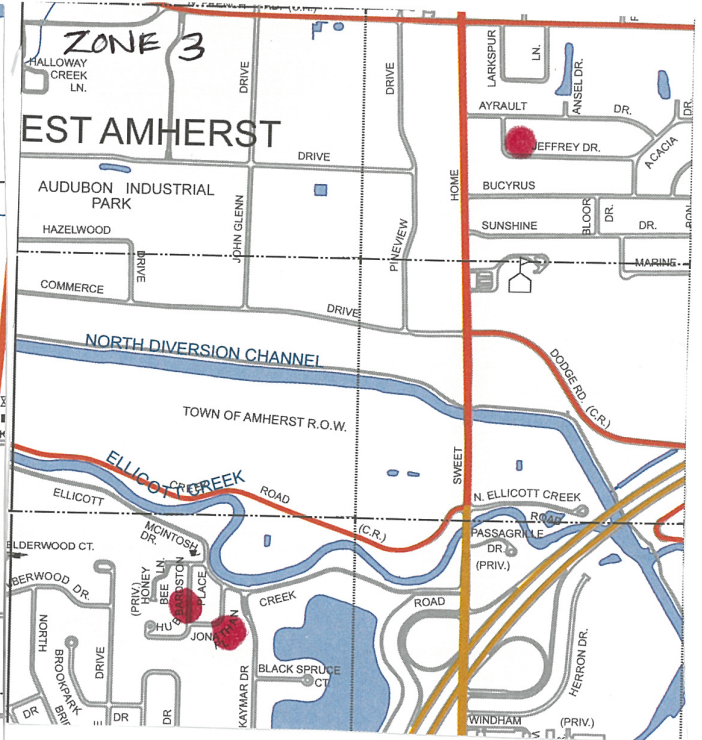

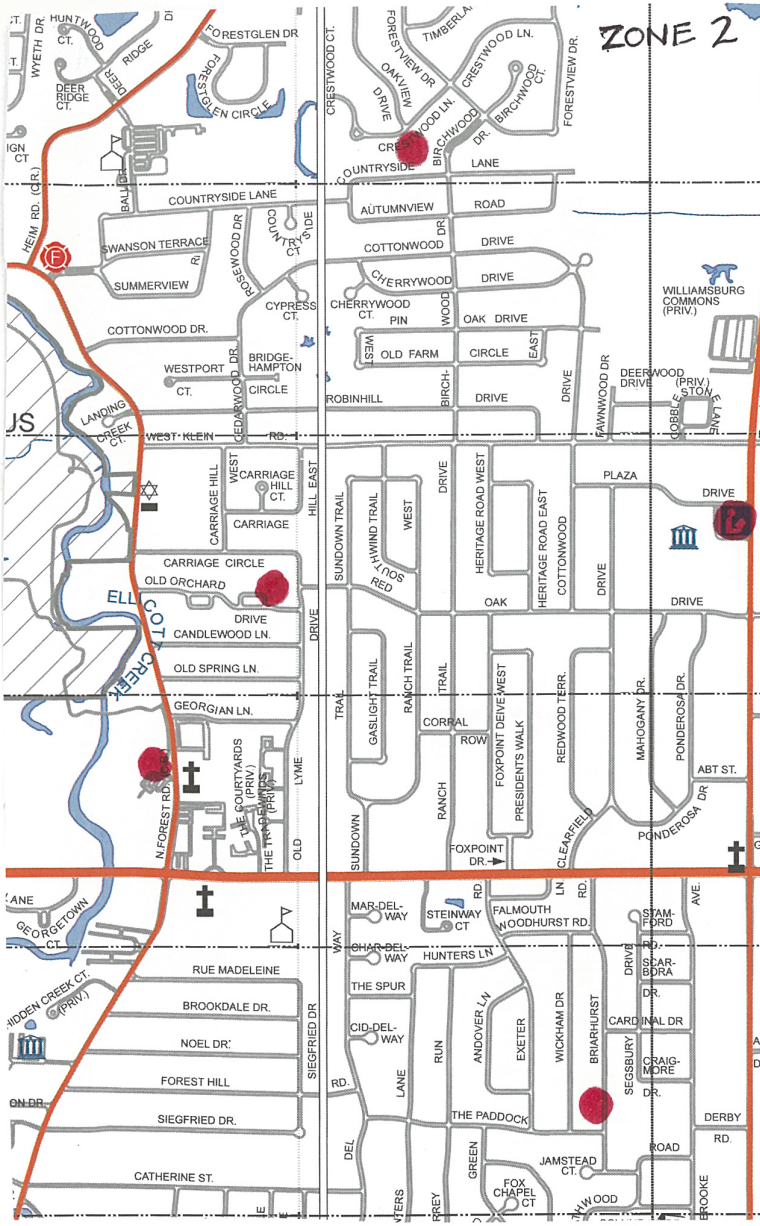

90 EAST PINELAKE DRIVE: A variety of Daylilies in multiple beds. Gardens run from front to back of house with wash of colors. Come and take it in! * SAT ONLY

ZONE 5

251 MCKINLEY AVENUE: Worth the drive to Main & Transit! One of the best! Fragrant lilies, phlox and many more! Pond, pergolas and an outside bar. A little slice of heaven!

132 FRUITWOOD TERRACE: "The house on the hill". A collection of colorful perennials, annuals, tropical and container gardening. A living wall, mirror wall and a playful shed makes for an enjoyable garden! Stop and visit, we would love to see you!
