577 CAPEN BLVD: This garden started as grass & a tree. Studying the sun and an artistic eye made it what it is today!

143 HENDRICKS BLVD: Relax under a wisteria draped pergola or stroll past the Zen Japanese garden. Maybe you will spot a dragonfly or butterfly while wandering thru colorful flower beds accented with uniquely repurposed items.

523 LONGMEADOW RD: Front features a variety of cactus and succulents. Remaining gardens offer an assortment of annuals and perennials.

699 LONGMEADOW RD: Double lot filled with color coordinating plants of annuals, perennials, and garden whimsy. Many climbing vines & small pond. Check out the "she" shed with bar and more!

135 IVYHURST RD: Beautiful shaded garden with sitting areas and garden art!

445 LEBRUN RD: Our color themes have always been pink, white, purple in the front and anything goes in the backyard. Our "outdoor kitchen" is all finished!

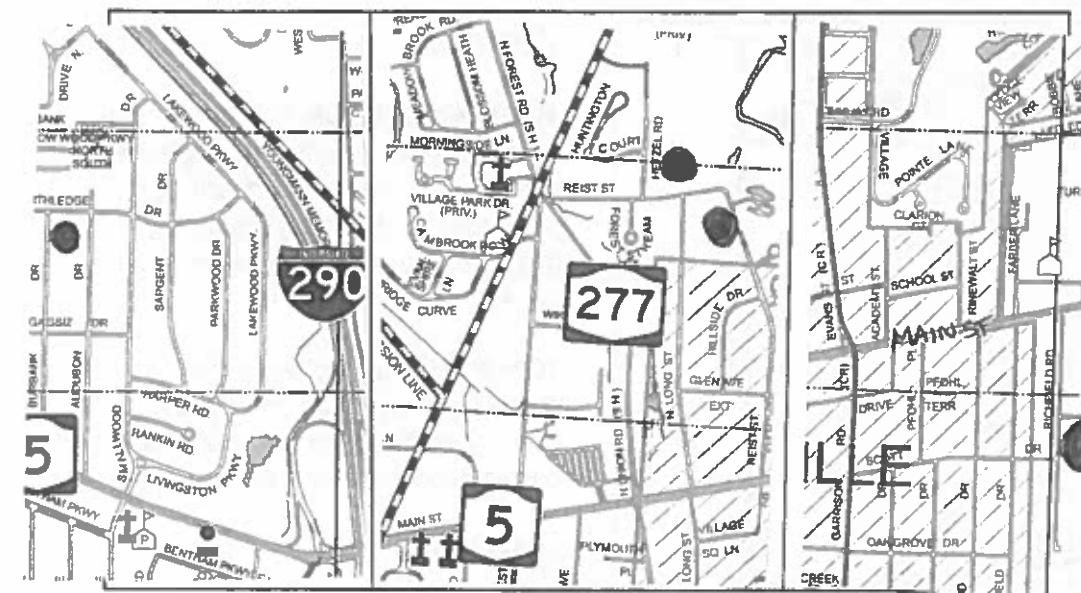

110 NORTH DR: A new bed this year is devoted to hummingbirds & fragrant plants. My garden emphasizes perennials, medicinal, culinary herbs & lots of annuals. There's a secret garden tucked away by the patio!

457 RUSKIN RD: Garden is over 30 yrs of work in progress. We've used the lost & found items, & colorful mix of plants to create our unique sanctuary!

299 HEDSTROM DR: Large perennial garden featuring over 30 varieties of hosta, a garden railroad with a scale model of Williamsville Depot. Also featuring a raised vegetable garden.

111 CAMPUS DR WEST: Craftsman inspired bi-level backyard featuring a 2,200 gallon koi pond with double waterfall. Lots of colorful perennials and annuals borders front, side and back. Two pergolas & a hemlock shed. A must see!

119 CAMPUS DR WEST: From concrete berm to blossoms. This 2 year old transformation is making its debut in the Amherst Garden Walk. Come see the start of a garden in the making!
