

Senior Deputy Town Attorney

The Town of Amherst in Erie County, NY is seeking experienced attorneys to serve in the Town Attorney's Office in rendering legal counsel to the Supervisor, Town Board and Town Departments as well as representing the Town in civil litigation. Strong written and verbal communication skills, professionalism and independent judgement required. Municipal law experience preferred; however, extensive prior municipal experience is not required if applicants possess the ability to learn quickly in a fast-paced environment.

Applicants must be licensed to practice law and in good standing in the State of New York. $96,918.49 - $133,317.96, salary commensurate based upon experience, with enrollment in New York State Retirement System and excellent benefits package available. Amherst residency may be required. Forward letter of application, resume and three (3) professional references postmarked by November 29, 2024, or email to Robert P. McCarthy, Esq., Director of Human Resources, Town of Amherst, 5583 Main Street, Williamsville, NY 14221. Minority applicants are encouraged to apply. EOE, M/F/V/D