The Remaking of the Albright-Knox Art Gallery April 21, 2022*

Presentation: Dr. Callie Johnson, Director of Communications and Community Engagement, will present on the current and future plans for the Buffalo AKG Art Museum. In 2019, the museum broke ground on the most significant construction project in its history. Dr. Johnson will discuss both the construction project and the broad, holistic process of institutional reinvention and discovery in which the museum has been engaged, including new plans for engaging the many diverse communities that make Western New York such a wonderful, dynamic place.

Some People Who Shaped Our Region May 19, 2022*

Presentation: Rick Falkowski, author and Ambassador of Buffalo Music and History, has written three books providing informative profiles of influential people from Buffalo and surrounding areas. He will discuss items from his book Historic & Influential People from Buffalo and WNY – the Early 1900s.

The Journey of Putting Words to Paper June 16, 2022*

Presentation: Dr. Patricia A. Knight knew that God was telling her to Start with Me, but she did not realize he would eventually lead her to write a 365 day devotional and accompanying journal with that title. With God's guidance, love, passion, and strength, Dr. Knight steps forward to share her book writing journey with all of us.
